2024 · WHAT ISSUES SHOULD I CONSIDER WHEN BUYING A HOME?

CASH FLOW ISSUES	YES	NO
 Do you need help determining how much it will cost to own and maintain your new home? If so, consider the following expenses: The mortgage payment, property taxes, homeowners insurance, and PMI (if applicable). The cost of the utilities and the cost to maintain the property (such as a new roof). Commuting costs, childcare, private education (if needed).
Will you be making changes/improvements to the property (such as a renovation or addition)? If so, consider how those future expenses will impact your financial situation.
Will this purchase impact your ability to save for other goals (such as retirement)? If so, consider prioritizing your goals and understanding the tradeoffs with each decision.
Do you have a spouse or partner, and do you currently or plan to live on one income (e.g., so that one parent can stay home with children)? If so, consider how the new home and carrying costs fit within your budget, and make adjustments accordingly.
Will you be living in the home for five years or fewer? If so, consider doing a break-even analysis to see if it may be more practical to rent rather than own.
MORTGAGE-RELATED ISSUES	YES	NO
 Do you need assistance in considering the financial impact of different types of mortgages? If so, consider the following: Weigh tradeoffs of mortgage terms and fixed/variable rates. Compare FHA loans to conventional loans. A reverse mortgage may make sense in some situations, if you are age 62 or older. (continue on next column)

MORTGAGE-RELATED ISSUES (CONTINUED)	YES	NO
Did you serve in the military? If so, you may be eligible for a VA Home Loan, which may offer a lower interest rate.
Do you need assistance in evaluating competitive interest rates?
Are you working and will your total monthly mortgage payment (P&I, taxes and insurance) be 28% or more of your gross monthly income? If so, some lenders may not be willing to lend money to you.
Are you retired and you have no earned income? If so, lenders may look at your portfolio value and/or your portfolio withdrawals to determine eligibility. Pensions and Social Security may also be taken into consideration.
If you have other long-term debts, will the total monthly debt payment (including the future mortgage) be 36% or more of your gross monthly income? If so, some lenders may not be willing to lend money to you.
 Do you have a low credit score or poor credit history? If so, consider the following: Review your credit report to ensure there are no inaccuracies. You may be charged a higher interest rate or denied a loan. Improve your credit score by paying bills on time and reducing some of your debt levels.
Do you anticipate making any large purchases, opening new credit cards, or closing existing credit cards in the months leading up to the purchase of your home? If so, consult with your lender to ensure that it does not impact your credit score or loan application.
